

I urge you not to pre-empt state laws that provide consumers with greater protection against unwanted telemarketers. In Wisconsin, we have a very effective law that is working very well. It has definitely cut down on the number of unwanted telemarketing calls that we are receiving.